

Crudwell Parish Council - Safeguarding Policy

1. Introduction

Everyone has a duty to safeguard children, young people and vulnerable adults regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, or sexual orientation or identity. Crudwell Parish Council takes very seriously its responsibility to protect the children, young people and vulnerable adults who use Crudwell Parish Council's premises, parks, open spaces and services, and sets the principles we expect from our staff, Councillors and volunteers.

2. Definitions:

- A child or young person is anyone under the age of 18 years. The fact that a child has reached 16 years of age, is living independently or is in further education, is a member of the armed forces, is in hospital or in custody in the secure estate, does not change his/her status or entitlements to services or protection.
- A vulnerable adult is someone who by reason of mental or other disability, age, or illness is unable to take care of themselves or unable to protect themselves against harm or exploitation. An adult for the purpose of this policy is anyone over 18 years of age.
- Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and vulnerable adults as defined for the purposes of this policy:
  - protecting children and vulnerable adults from maltreatment, or harm
  - preventing impairment of children's and vulnerable adult's health or development
  - ensuring that children and vulnerable adults are participating in experiences, using services, or facilities consistent with the provision of safe and effective care and provision
  - taking action to enable all children and vulnerable adults to have the best life chances, or user experience.
- Abuse: A form of maltreatment of a child or vulnerable adult. Abuse or neglect can occur by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children or vulnerable adults may be abused in a family, in an institution, or a community setting, by those known to them or, more rarely, by others (e.g. via the internet). They may be abused by an adult or adults, or another child or children.
- Physical abuse: A form of abuse which may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child or vulnerable adult. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child or dependent adult.
- Emotional abuse: The persistent emotional maltreatment of a child or vulnerable adult so as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on emotional development or wellbeing. It may involve conveying to the child or vulnerable adult that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may include not giving the victim opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them or 'making fun' of what they say or how they communicate. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children or vulnerable adults. These may include interactions that are beyond the person's developmental capability, as well as hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying (including cyber bullying), causing children or vulnerable adults to frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children or vulnerable adults. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment, though it may occur alone.

- Sexual abuse: Involves forcing or enticing a child, young person or vulnerable adult to take part in sexual activities, not necessarily involving a high level of violence, whether or not the child/vulnerable adult is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including assault by penetration (for example, rape or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts such as masturbation, kissing, rubbing and touching outside of clothing. They may also include non-contact activities, such as involving children or vulnerable adults in looking at, or in the production of, sexual images, watching sexual activities, encouraging children or vulnerable adults to behave in sexually inappropriate ways, or grooming them in preparation for abuse (including via the internet). Sexual abuse is not solely perpetrated by adult males. Women can also commit acts of sexual abuse, as can other children.
- Neglect: The persistent failure to meet a person's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's or vulnerable adult's health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal substance abuse. Neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to:
  - provide adequate food, clothing and shelter (including exclusion from home or abandonment);
  - protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger;
  - ensure adequate supervision (including the use of inadequate care-givers);
  - ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment.It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's or vulnerable adult's basic emotional needs.
- Substantial Access: This policy defines substantial access as:
  - Where an individual is regularly caring for, training, or supervising a child, young person or vulnerable adult.
    - Where an individual has sole charge of children, young people and vulnerable adults.
